

Over the past 25 years Living Waters has been working with local churches assisting them in ministering to men and women who are dealing with the effects of abuse, addictive behaviour, broken patterns in relationships, gender insecurity, and the shame, fear, compulsivity, and anger that come from relational and sexual wounding.

We offer a safe place for people to walk through a healing journey, and to find freedom from a variety of issues, including abuse, relational dependency, addiction, marital problems, same-sex attraction and other kinds of brokenness.

Today, in cooperation with local churches, we offer prayer and discipleship programs in 7 cities across South Africa, including JHB, Cape Town, Port Elizabeth and Pietermaritzburg. These groups provide an opportunity for men and women to experience grace and freedom in their lives.

Join us on either weekend and discover how God sets us free from life-long struggles through Jesus. This is a safe place for you to come and listen without any threat of being exposed.
