Date & Time:

Monday 3rd November 2008
08h00 to 16h30

SANRAL recently revised its Routine Road Maintenance (RRM) Guidance Manual (2000). The revised Manual (2008) is based on feedback and lessons learnt from Engineers, Route Managers, Contractors and Sub-contractors on routine road maintenance contracts over the last decade.

The primary objective of the RRM Guidance Manual is to guide the Site Management Team (Client, Consultant and Contractor) in efficient management of the RRM contracts, accurate identification of problems/shortcomings and selecting appropriate and cost effective actions and / or repair methods.

The purpose of the seminar is to point out and highlight new aspects of the content of RRM (2008).

Who should attend: Road Authorities, Consultants, Contractors and Sub-Contractors involved in the maintenance of roads

Application for CPD Validation has been made to SAICE
